

LIBERAMENTE SHORT SELECTION

1 – Objectives

Liberamente Short Selection is a festival organized and promoted by Liberamente Cavaion APS with the support of Quock Productions and I Guardiani del Moscal. The initiative is sponsored by the Municipality of Cavaion V.se.

The goal is to allow the dissemination of independent short films in our territory, giving visibility to emerging artists and awarding the most deserving individuals.

2 – Execution

The Short Selection takes place within the 2025 cineforum of Liberamente Cavaion APS, titled “Estraneo Familiare” (“Familiar Stranger”), which will be held at the E. Turri Civic Hall in Cavaion V.se over four sessions, from February 3 to February 25, 2025. The competing films will precede the screening of selected feature films.

3 – Rules for Competition Entry

The competition has no thematic or genre restrictions. Fiction works, documentaries, experimental works, and animations are accepted. Works must not exceed 15 minutes in length, including opening and closing credits.

Only productions created after January 1, 2020, will be considered.

The deadline for submissions is set for January 3, 2025, at 1:00 PM.

3.1 – Submission Methods

Works must be submitted via a YouTube/Vimeo link or file sharing through the WeTransfer platform (<https://wetransfer.com/>). Submissions must be accompanied by the completion of the form available on the page: (<https://www.liberamentecavaion.it/candidatura/>).

4 – Selection Outcome

The pre-selection of films will be managed by the artistic direction of the event. The decisions of this body are final.

Selected candidates will be notified via email by Friday, January 16, 2025. The list of selected works will also be published simultaneously on the social media channels of Liberamente Cavaion APS.

The authors and actors involved in the selected projects are invited to attend the dedicated screening.

5 – Awards and Special Mentions

The competition will feature a jury awarding the best production and possibly a special mention.

A monetary prize is planned for the winning film.

6 – Award Ceremony

The evening of February 25, 2025, will be dedicated to the award ceremony for the competition winners. All participants involved in the competing projects are invited to attend.

7 – Declaration of Authenticity

By submitting their work, applicants accept all the rules and also declare:

a. To be the authors of the submitted films; b. That the films do not contain material recorded by other artists without possessing the legal rights to use it.

8 – General Conditions

Authors and producers authorize the publication of data related to their works on liberamentecavaion.it, the competition catalog, and the aforementioned social channels. They also authorize the use of the provided material for promotional purposes.

By submitting their work, authors and producers waive any claims, actions, or requests towards the jury members, the selection committee, and anyone involved in organizing the event.

The authors and producers of selected films authorize the use of their works in future non-profit events organized by Liberamente Cavaion APS.

No remuneration is provided for the acquisition of the screening rights of competing works.

COMPLETING THE ONLINE FORM IMPLIES ACCEPTANCE OF THE CONDITIONS OUTLINED IN THIS REGULATION.
